Description

"8. 610 Cammino di San Colombano" is the digital version in four languages (DE, EN, FR and IT) of this last topo guide published by Terre de Mezzo, a recognised specialist in itineraries.

The digital version of the "Via Columbani" website details all the stages along this walking route in a uniform manner. In addition, it allows the GPS position of the walker to be displayed on a Smartphone or tablet screen, as well as accommodation, services and points of interest, even without an Internet connection.

Finally, the real-time administration of the digital data ensures that the information provided to walkers is kept up to date, and they can also give their opinions and suggestions in return.
