Description

The Chapel of Our Lady of Boxwood is one of the most beautiful chapels in the city. A hermitage dating from the 13th century is attested, before the present chapel replaced it at an unknown date, but certainly between the 17th and 19th centuries. After the present chapel was built, it was deteriorated in 1815, and restored and enlarged in 1865. The interior of the building is richly furnished, including an organ as well as statues.

This topographic map shows the area around La Chapelle des Buis. Key features include:

- Water Features: A river flows through the bottom right corner. Several ponds are visible, including one labeled 'Fontain'.
- Topography: The terrain is hilly, indicated by green shading and contour lines. Elevation points are marked: 'Le Petit Truchot 473 m' and 'Le Truchot 489 m'.
- Roads: A network of roads is shown, including 'Chemin de la Bro', 'Chemin de Mialotte', 'Chemin du Fort', 'Chemin des Mercureaux', 'Route des Buis', and 'D 144'.
- Landmarks: 'La Chapelle des Buis' is the central settlement. Other locations include 'La Bro', 'Besançon', and 'Morre'.
- Infrastructure: A railway line runs horizontally across the middle of the map.
- Map Elements: A compass rose is in the top left, and a scale bar for '100 m' is in the bottom left.
