Description

The house is located in the quiet village of Oro, located on the Sentiero del Viandante, an old road, now rediscovered and used by modern travellers. Located about 100 metres above the shore, overlooking the green terraces and enjoying a splendid view of the lake and mountains. In the old house, recently restored with respect for the materials and forms of the place, there is tranquility and silence. Four vistalago rooms are available for guests. Living room, library and garden.
