

Cornish pasty

England

Attribution : Cornish Pasty

The origin of this Cornish speciality is a meal prepared by miners in the 19th century.

Useful information

Category : Local produce

Détail : Regional dish

Description

At the request of the Cornish Pastry Associations, Cornish pasties have been labelled by the European Union and must only be made in this region with local products according to specific rules for the shape, the nature of the filling and the baking process without artificial flavourings or additives.

Geographical location

All useful information

Contact

The Chough Bakery
3 the Strand
Padstow PL28 8AJ

+44 1841 533361

<https://www.cornishpasty.com>