

Réchésy to Ferrette

France - Bourgogne-Franche-Comté

L'église Saint-Bernard de Menthon à Ferrette (Amis saint Colomban)

You are entering the Sundgau region, renowned for its natural and game-filled heritage. You will notice that the names of villages and places have a Germanic sound. Testimony of a cultural mix over the centuries that gives the Alsatian specificity. Discover the rich heritage of Ferrette.

The day begins with a walk in the forest with a first break on the site of the Three Powers post, a set of information panels recounting the history of a whole region sometimes German, Swiss, French. You continue along the border with Switzerland to make a small incursion into Swiss territory.

Continue your walk in the French forests before passing through Liebsdorf and Durlinsdorf. At the end of the stage you discover a magnificent panorama of the town of Ferrette with its castle. Let us tell you the history of the county of Ferrette.

Saint-Jean Gualbert Church à Liebsdorf (A)

Liebsdorf is one of the villages that have settled in contact with two contrasting morphological areas: the Sundgauvian plateau and the Jura fold of the Burgerwald. The village itself appears in texts from the 12th century onwards (income received by the convent of Moutier-Grandval), but the Liebenstein site, to the south of the village, retains the tower of a medieval castle, which probably occupied the site of a Roman castel guarding the road that ran along the foot of the Jura.

A subsidiary of Durlinsdorf until 1882, the parish community of Liebsdorf acquired a church in 1870, dedicated to Saint Jean Gualbert, abbot of Vallombreuse (Tuscany). The neo-gothic building bears many similarities to the neighbouring parish church of Courtavon.

The Chapel of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart in Durlinsdorf (B)

This chapel was renovated by volunteers and consecrated to Our Lady of the Sacred Heart in 1984.

The bell tower was built in 2008.

The chapel houses a statue of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, offered by a resident of the village. The statue is made of reconstituted stone by a Parisian artist, Luizetti (a specialist, among others, in the restoration of works from the Pantheon), after the original of Issoudun, Notre-Dame du Sacré Coeur by Chambolt.

Before meeting this chapel you could admire the Calvary of Liebsdorf installed in 2016.

Faith is very present in this stage.
