

Newry to Rostrevor

Northern Ireland - Newry and Mourne

Still on St Patrick's Way, heading towards the sea via the mountains.

After regularly following the Newry Canal, the stage offers a gradual climb into the foothills of the Mourne Mountains (220m above sea level) before descending to sea level. Above all, it offers magnificent views of these two areas.

From the cathedral, continue southwards for 300m until you reach a major junction marked by numerous traffic lights:

1. Cross the 4-lane road at the pedestrian crossings and turn left onto the pavement opposite. Before the next set of traffic lights, turn right onto the pedestrian subway which crosses under the road and reaches Abbey Way (St Patrick's Way markings). Continue along this road for 1.5km, following the signs.
2. At the stop sign after a quarry (on the right of the road going downhill), turn left and climb for 500m to the next stop sign. Turn right and continue for 1.5km to the signposted crossroads. Turn left for 500m, changing direction twice.
3. At the next crossroads, turn left and head north-east for 1.2km. At the junction with Derryleckagh Road, turn right and then, after 100m, left (signposted) onto the small road that runs parallel to the main road, which you will find again after 700m.
4. At the junction with Bridge Road, turn left, then right after 100m (signposted). Follow this road with its many bends for 2.5km until you reach a stop sign.
5. Turn right and then immediately left onto the larger road. Cross the bridge and continue for 250m to turn right onto Levallyreagh Road (signposted). Continue on this road for 2km.
6. Leave the track on the right and continue downhill towards Rostrevor.
7. At the crossroads in town, turn left (signposted) to reach the church visible on the left.
